ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Many people made contributions to the research for this work. I would like to thank those who provided particularly helpful information or services that enabled me to complete the project. Mrs. Emma Moeckel and Reverend Henry Swanson provided information about Zion, Groveland and St. Paul, Orlando. Reverend Donald Burgdorf arranged interviews with some of the founders of Holy Trinity, Masaryktown, and Reverend James Kunze and Esther Fischer supplied information about the formation of Zion, Gotha and Trinity, Orlando. Southern District archivist Reverend James Ertl researched the files in New Orleans and translated some of the minutes and reports recorded in German. Reverend Kurt Biel reorganized the Florida-Georgia District archives so one can now easily locate pertinent documents. Researchers at the Concordia Historical Institute in St. Louis supplied synodical reports and statistics. Dr. Edmund and Carol Kallina of the University of Central Florida read the text and provided helpful comments. I am greatly indebted to my advisor, Dr. Paul Wehr, who guided my research. The only disappointment I experienced occurred when it was impossible to locate thirty-two volumes of the Augustana Synod's Florida District minutes and reports. I alone am responsible for any inaccuracies included in the text. Finally, I thank my wife, Linda, who permitted me to use the kitchen table for the last four years and patiently awaited the completion of my research.
